Lewis, Babineaux Honored Again

Magnolia, Ark. --- Southern Arkansas University’s Nik Lewis and Jordan Babineaux continue to receive post-season football honors as both were selected to the second team 2003 D2Football.com All-America Team announced today.

Babineaux, a 6-0, 202-pound senior cornerback from Port Arthur, Tex., was named as a defensive back and Lewis, a 6-0, 190-pound senior wide receiver/punt returner from Jacksboro, Tex., was chosen as a special teams return specialist.

Babineaux had previously been named the 2003 national NCAA Division II Special Teams Performer of the Year by Dopke.com while teammates Thomas LaToof, a kicker, and Lewis, made second team specialists.

Lewis was earlier selected on the 2003 first team Associated Press Little All-America Team as an all-purpose player.
